Assault Weapon Recovered in Drug Arrest of Three Men

Newark Public Safety Director Anthony F. Ambrose reports the arrest of Quadir Whitehead, 27, Damon Dunston, 19, and Najee Gregory, 22, all from Newark, for CDS cocaine and heroin distribution and weapons possession, including an assault rifle, yesterday.

The three suspects were arrested in the area of Harding Terrace and Bergen Street. Whitehead, Dunston and Gregory each face charges of possession of CDS cocaine, CDS cocaine distribution and CDS cocaine distribution within 1,000 ft. of a school. Each suspect is also charged with possession of CDS heroin, CDS heroin distribution and CDS heroin distribution within 1,000 ft. of a school.

Whitehead and Gregory face additional charges of burglary, conspiracy, possession of a weapon while committing a CDS offense, possession of a weapon (machine gun and handgun), possession of prohibited weapons (hollow points) and possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose.

These charges are merely accusations. Each suspect is presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
