Warrant Issued for East Orange Man Wanted for Eluding

Newark Public Safety Director Anthony F. Ambrose reports that a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Marvin Horn, 49, of East Orange, for an incident of eluding that occurred on Monday, November 2, 2020.

At approximately 9 a.m., officers patrolling the 900 block of 18th Avenue observed a vehicle with darkly tinted windows and conducted a motor vehicle stop. The driver, Marvin Horn, initially pulled over, but was unable to produce a driver's license. He then restarted his vehicle and fled.

Horn has been issued summonses for failing to signal, reckless driving, improper passing, driving without a valid license and driving while suspended, among other violations. Detectives investigating this incident obtained a warrant for his arrest on a charge of eluding.

While police are actively searching for Horn, we request the public's assistance in quickly locating him as part of this investigation. He is described as 6-ft. tall with a medium brown complexion, a bald head and brown eyes.

Director Ambrose urges anyone with information about the whereabouts of Marvin Horn to call the Division's 24-hour Crime Stopper tip line at 1-877-NWK-TIPS (1-877-695-8477). All anonymous Crime Stopper tips are kept confidential and could result in a reward.
