Police Seek Public's Help with Identifying Burglary Suspect

Newark Public Safety Director Anthony F. Ambrose is requesting the public's help with identifying the male suspect pictured below who is wanted for a burglary that occurred in an apartment on November 7, 2020.

Police officers responded to a burglary call around 12:45 a.m. at an apartment in the 200 block of Market Street. When they arrived, the victim told police that an iPad and gaming system were missing. The suspect was captured on surveillance video climbing the fire escape, entering the victim's apartment through the bedroom window and taking her belongings.

While police are actively searching for this suspect, we seek the public's help so that he can be quickly located. Director Ambrose urges anyone with information about his whereabouts to call the Division's 24-hour Crime Stopper tip line at 877-

NWK-TIPS (1-877-695-8477). All anonymous Crime Stopper tips are kept confidential and could result in a reward.

Anonymous tips may also be made using the Police Division's website at: www.newarkpd.org or through our Smartphone App available at iTunes and Google Play. Search Newark Police Division to download the App.
