Police Arrest and Charge Newark Man with Several Thefts

Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara said Jose Perez, 40, of Newark has been arrested and charged three times with theft when he stole delivered packages over a two-week period from homes in the Forest Hills section of the city.

Perez was charged with thefts that occurred on March 23, April 4th and April 7th after police officers identified him as the man who stole packages from three homes. The first theft took place in the 200 block of Highland Avenue and the others happened in the 300 and 700 blocks of Ridge Street.

These charges are merely accusations. The suspect is presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
