Police Arrest Burglary Suspect

Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara reports that police arrested Kent Williams, 50, of Newark and charged with him burglary and criminal yesterday after he broke into an apartment on Harding Terrace.

Police responded to a call about the incident, which occurred around 9:44 a.m. The suspect, who shattered a rear window to gain entry, was arrested by officers when he tried to leave the apartment through the front door. Williams was charged with burglary and criminal mischief.

These charges are merely an accusation. The suspect is presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
