Police Seek the Public's Help in Locating Missing 64-Year-Old Newark Man with Dementia and Schizophrenia

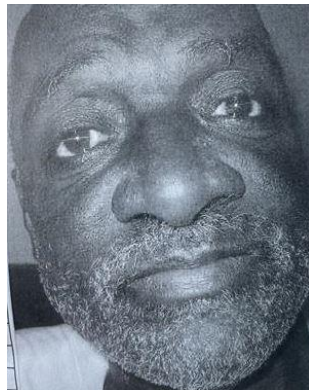

Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara requests the public's help in locating Raymond Hall, 64, of Newark, who was reported missing yesterday.

Mr. Hall, who suffers from dementia and schizophrenia, reportedly walked out of a senior citizen's assisted living facility at 298 Broadway at approximately 9 a.m.

He is described as 5'10" tall and 205 lbs. He has a dark brown complexion, gray hair, a full gray beard, and brown eyes. He was last seen wearing a brown long-sleeve shirt, blue jeans, brown slippers and a white Polo hat.

Director O'Hara urges anyone with information on the whereabouts of Raymond Hall to call the Division's 24-hour Crime Stopper tip line at 1-877-NWK-TIPS (1-877-695-8477). All anonymous Crime Stopper tips are kept confidential and could result in a reward.

Anonymous tips may also be made using the Police Division's website at www.newarkpublicsafety.org. or through our Smartphone App available at iTunes and Google Play. Search Newark Police Division to download the App.
