UPDATE: Police Arrest Newark Man
Wanted for Dog Theft

Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara reports the arrest of Kenol Monreau, 50, of Newark, in connection with a dog theft that occurred on June 15, 2021.

A woman and her dog, while in the area of South Orange Avenue and South 6th Street, were approached by the suspect, who was driving a gray truck. The suspect inquired about the victim's dog, a Yorkie, and asked to hold the dog before driving away with the victim's pet.

Detectives identified Kenol Monreau as a suspect in this incident and obtained a warrant for his arrest. He was brought into custody today by members of the Newark Police Fugitive Unit and faces a charge of theft.

This charge is merely an accusation. This suspect is presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
