Police Seek Public's Help Identifying Burglary Suspects

Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara requests the public's help with identifying the below-pictured suspects who broke into a discount store and stole its merchandise on July 21, 2021.

Police responded to a burglary incident around 3:30 a.m. when an alarm was detected at "Just For A Dollar" store in the 200 block of Chestnut Street. Upon arrival, the officers contacted the owner after making sure no else was inside the store. The suspects, however, were captured on surveillance video prying open the front door and leaving with several items. The owner told officers that some watches and headphones were missing.

Suspect No. 1 is described as a Black male wearing a white shirt, black pants, and blue face mask. Suspect No. 2 is described as a Black male a wearing black shirt, black shorts, and a black face mask.

While detectives investigate this incident and seek the public's help with identifying the suspects, Director O'Hara urges anyone with information about the individuals to call the Division's 24-hour Crime Stopper tip line at 1-877-NWK-TIPS (1-877-695-8477). All anonymous Crime Stopper tips are kept confidential and could result in a reward.
