Police Arrest Newark Man Wanted for Business Burglary

Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara reports that Eli Cid, 44, of Newark has been arrested for burglary when he broke into a convenience store and stole lottery tickets and $600 on September 12, 2021.

Police officers responded to a call about a burglary that took place around 3:40 a.m. at the Downneck Convenience Store located at 19 Pacific Street. As part of the investigation, Cid was identified as the suspect after he was captured on surveillance video breaking the glass door of the store and taking the lottery tickets.

These charges are merely accusations. The suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
