Police Arrest Connecticut Man for Operating Illegal Liquor Establishment

Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara reports that Troydel A. Lustal, 22, of East Hartford, CT. was arrested for operating an unlicensed liquor establishment on November 28, 2021.

Detectives with the Vice Crime Unit and 2nd Precinct Police Officers responded to 138 Bloomfield Avenue after receiving complaints about loud parties and the sale of illegal alcohol. When detectives arrived at approximately 1 a.m., they investigated and discovered that Lustal was operating an illegal alcohol establishment at that address. Officers confiscated a large amount of alcohol and money.

In addition to operating an unlicensed alcohol establishment, Lustal was also charged with possession of alcohol and the illegal sale of alcohol.

These charges are merely accusations. The suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
