Police Seek the Public's Help in Identifying Package Theft Suspects

Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara requests the public's help in identifying the below-pictured male and female suspects in connection with a package theft that occurred on Thursday, April 28, 2022.

A victim reported that a package, delivered to a residence in the 100 block of Norwood Street, was stolen at approximately 12:40 p.m. The female suspect waited outside the residence's gate as the male suspect opened gate and took the victim's package, with contents valued at $195.00.

Detectives investigating this incident seek the public's help in quickly identifying these suspects as part of their investigation. The male is described as Black, wearing a burgundy sweat suit, a white hooded sweater, and black shoes. The female is described as Black, with red hair styled in two braids, wearing a black jacket and black pants.

Director O'Hara urges anyone with information on the identity of these suspects to call the Division's 24-hour Crime Stopper tip line at 1-877-NWK-TIPS (1-877-695-8477). All anonymous Crime Stopper tips are kept confidential and could result in a reward.

Anonymous tips may also be made using the Police Division's website at <https://npd.newarkpublicsafety.org/> or through our Smartphone App on Apple's App Store or Google Play. Search Newark Police Division to download the App.
