Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara requests the public's help with identifying the below-pictured suspect who is wanted in connection with the theft of a vehicle used during a shooting in which three people were shot on May 4, 2022.

The incident, which is under investigation by the Major Crimes Shooting Response Team, occurred around 5:50 p.m. when a vehicle traveling northbound on Irvine Turner Boulevard was struck by several gunshots fired from a black 2005 BMW stolen in Kearney on April 20, 2022. The vehicle has since been recovered and the victims are in stable condition at University Hospital.
