Police Seek Public's Help Identifying Carjacking Suspects

Newark Public Safety Director Brian A. O'Hara requests the public's help with identifying the below-pictured suspects, who carjacked a victim's vehicle on June 13, 2022.

Police responded to a call about a stolen vehicle, but during the investigation, the officers determined that the victim's vehicle was carjacked around 11:06 a.m. in the 300 block of Sixth Avenue. The suspects, two Black males, approached the victim and began arguing with him while he was near his white Nissan Altima.

Suspect #1 in the picture below snatched the victim's keys and pulled out a weapon he used to strike the victim in the face. Both suspects fled in the vehicle, which was later recovered in the 400 block of 12th Street.

Suspect #1 is a light-skin, Black male, with a thin build, and a short haircut. Known on the street as "Baby Skee" or "Skee," he is approximately 17 to 19 years old, 5'5"-5'7," and weighs about 120 pounds. He was wearing a light-colored sweatshirt with a hood, dark-colored pants, and grey sneakers.

Suspect #2 is a dark skin, Black male, with a short afro twist hairstyle and a slim build. He is approximately 17 to 19 years old, 5'7"-5-9," and weighs about 130 pounds. He was wearing a dark sweatshirt with a hood, blue jeans, and blue Air Jordan 5 retro sneakers.

Director O'Hara urges anyone with information about the suspects to call the Police Division's 24-hour Crime Stopper tip line at 1-877-NWK-TIPS (1-877-695-8477). All anonymous Crime Stopper tips are kept confidential and could result in a reward.
