Police Seek Public's Help Identifying Armed Robbery Suspects

Interim Newark Public Safety Director Raul Malave III requests the public help with identifying the below-pictured suspects, who robbed a male victim on July 8, 2022.

Police responded to a call about a robbery that occurred around 4:58 a.m. at Union Street and Dodd Alley. The victim was walking northbound on Union Street when two Hispanic males approached him on a scooter. Suspect #1 pushed the victim to the ground and punched him several times. After the assault, suspect #1 pulled out a knife and demanded that the victim give up his wallet. Suspect #2 then took the victim's wallet and cellphone. Both men fled on the scooter, traveling northbound on Union Street.

Suspect #1, described as a white Hispanic male, was wearing black shorts, a grey tank top, a white T-shirt over his shoulder, black sneakers, and a black cross body fanny pack.

Suspect #2, described as a white Hispanic male, was wearing black pants, a white T-shirt with a decal in the center, and white and grey sneakers.

Interim Director Malave urges anyone with information about the suspect's whereabouts to call the Police Division's 24-hour Crime Stopper tip line at 1-877-NWK-TIPS (1-877-695-
