Police Seek the Public's Help in Locating Man Wanted for Questioning in Burglary

Newark Public Safety Director Fritz G. Fragé requests the public's help in locating Christopher Barnes, 56, wanted for questioning in connection with a burglary that occurred on Thursday, August 18, 2022.

Police responded to a residence in the 100 block of Stuyvesant Avenue on a burglary call. The victim reported that several tools, appliances, and furniture were stolen out of the home, which was under renovation. The tools included a jackhammer, wooden trap saw, screw gun, chain saw, and nail gun, among other tools. The appliances included three portable heaters, a double-door refrigerator, a gas stove, a washer and dryer, and a 58" TV. The furniture consisted of a bathroom vanity, three living room seats, and other items.

Detectives investigating this incident seek the public's help in locating Barnes, who is wanted for questioning as part of their investigation. He is described as 5'7" tall and 150 pounds, with black and gray hair and brown eyes.

Director Fragé urges anyone with information about the whereabouts of Christopher Barnes to call the Division's 24-hour Crime Stopper tip line at 1-877-NWK-TIPS (1-877-695-8477). All anonymous Crime Stopper tips are kept confidential and could result in a reward.
